
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 12, 1853.

Read twice, and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

FEBRUARY 16, 1853.

Reported without amendment.

AN ACT

To amend an act entitled “An act for the relief of Joseph Johnston,” approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, by correcting a clerical error.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the clerical error in the aforesaid act be corrected by making
4 the name of Joseph Johnston to read Joseph Johnson, which
5 was intended; and that all the benefits of said act shall accrue
6 to, and the same be, and hereby are, extended to said Joseph
7 Johnson.